About us

Lora

- Retired Paralympic tandem cyclist and multiple gold medallist.
- Mum to a visually impaired three-year-old son.
- Passionate about helping create a world where children like him can grow up confident, independent and able to thrive.

Roy

- Current England blind football captain.
- 15 years of experience coaching and teaching sports at all levels.
- Runs a community interest company encouraging confidence, independence and transferable life skills for BPSB children and adults through participation in sports.

We…

- share a role at BBS.
- have been blind since birth.
- were raised with a strong emphasis on independence, physical activity and sport.
- are brother and sister!
